The Edward and Rose Berman Hillel Jewish University Center
Campus Superstar 2022

FINALISTS
The proceeds from tonight’s event benefit Hillel JUC Students

The Edward and Rose Berman Hillel Jewish University Center of Pittsburgh (Hillel JUC) is the center of Jewish life for students from Carnegie Mellon University, University of Pittsburgh, Chatham University, Duquesne University, and other area colleges and universities, serving an estimated 2,200 undergraduate students. For a diverse market of students from various backgrounds and interests, the Hillel JUC provides a nurturing environment where students can both explore and participate in the vibrant world of Jewish life on campus.

Based on the premise that college life involves much more than attending classes, the Hillel JUC provides the environment and tools that empower students to help shape their future as Jewish young adults. Our student-designed and student-led programs challenge them to learn and grow, choosing from an array of religious, cultural, political, and social options based on individual interests.

By engaging and empowering students to help create their own center for Jewish life on campus, the Hillel JUC serves as a training ground for future Jewish leaders and committed members of the community.

For more information, please visit www.hilleljuc.org.
Welcome back to Hillel JUC’s Campus Superstar 2022! We have missed the opportunity to gather and showcase the incredible talent you will witness tonight. As you know, Campus Superstar is the annual fundraising event for The Edward and Rose Berman Hillel Jewish University Center of Pittsburgh. The mission of our Hillel JUC is “to enrich the lives of Jewish students so that they may enrich the Jewish people and the world.” To meet that ambitious assignment, we are fortunate to have fantastic staff, a great board and most importantly, outstanding students.

The essential funds raised by Campus Superstar provide Hillel JUC with the resources to engage with every Jewish student on Pittsburgh area college campuses and to build authentic relationships. These important funds allow us to host Shabbat and Holiday experiences, provide leadership training, social justice activities and Jewish learning fellowships, to host Challah for Hunger, Israel programming and klezmer rehearsals—and so much more. We want every Jewish college student to write their own chapter in the story of the Jewish people. Our commitment to every Jewish student is our best investment in ensuring dedicated Jewish leaders for tomorrow.

Our immense gratitude goes to everyone who has made this event possible. Thank you to our honorees Ellen and Bob Katzen for being role models of how to lead with Jewish values. We commend them for their commitments to our Jewish future. We are grateful that Danielle Kranjec’s legacy continues at Hillel JUC and in the lives of the students she inspired. Danielle transformed what it means to be a Senior Jewish Educator for the entire Hillel movement. And thank you to the performers, audience, donors and the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh for supporting Hillel JUC and Campus Superstar!
Bob and Ellen Katzen

Ellen and Bob have been married for 60 years with three children and seven grandchildren and have lived in Pittsburgh for their entire lives. Both Ellen and Bob are graduates of the University of Pittsburgh. Ellen earned a Bachelor of Science in education and Bob earned a Bachelor of Arts with majors in political science, economics and insurance. Ellen was an elementary school teacher for three years before raising her children. She created a tye dye business and marketed on both a retail and wholesale level to many venues over three decades. Bob has been a self-employed insurance broker for over 60 years. He was founder and owner of Underwriters Brokerage Service, a regional wholesale brokerage insurance agency. Bob was past Chairman of Life Brokerage Service Corp., past member of Pittsburgh Life Underwriters Association, past board member of the RISK Appraisal Forum and past Chairman of the National Association of Independent Life Brokerage Agencies.

Ellen was President of the Night Chapter of ORT, served on the board of Temple Sinai, chaired many committees and is presently a Lifetime Honorary Trustee of Temple Sinai. Ellen was also awarded the Volunteer of the Year for Temple Sinai. Ellen presently serves as chair of the selection committee of the Mukerji Scholarship Foundation. Bob has been an active fundraiser for the Jewish Federation for over 50 years and was continued on next page awarded its Volunteer of the Year Award. Bob has served on the board of Zionist Organization of America, American Jewish Committee, American Jewish National Fund and was past president of Temple Sinai congregation. Bob was past director of First Federal Savings and Loan, First Gateway Properties Inc. Bob was past president of Anshe Lubovitz Cemetery Association and presently serves on the board of the Jewish Cemetery and Burial Association (JCBA). Bob is also current president of the Mukerji Scholarship Foundation.

Bob is a past board member and development chair of Hillel JUC. Both Ellen and Bob were past co-chairs of Hillel JUC’s Campus Superstar and have raised funds over several decades for Hillel JUC. Their endless dedication to Hillel JUC’s mission and vision not only strengthens future Jewish community leaders but also ensures Jewish continuity.
Danielle Kranjec

A nationally-recognized relational educator, Danielle Kranjec served as the Senior Jewish Educator at the Hillel Jewish University Center of Pittsburgh for eight years. Danielle was named a Richard M. Joel Exemplar of Excellence by Hillel International in 2020, the highest honor awarded to Hillel employees. Inspired by her work to elevate the voices of Jewish women and others marginalized by the tradition, her colleagues at Hillel International coined the eponymous “Kranjec Test” to determine whether the sources from which Jewish educators teach are inclusive.

Danielle holds an M.A. in Medieval Jewish Studies from the Jewish Theological Seminary, where she also completed her doctoral coursework. A medievalist by training, Kranjec received her B.A. from Oberlin College, was a Graduate Research Fellow at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, and also completed studies at the Universidad Castilla-La Mancha and the Universidad de Cordoba in Spain, as well as at NYU, The CUNY Graduate Center, and Columbia University.

Danielle is currently the Director of Campus Initiatives for Shalom Hartman Institute of North America, where she leads the vision, design and implementation.

Presidents’ Messages

Hillel has been a constant in my college experience with its adaptive programming since the beginning of the pandemic. I am so incredibly grateful for the opportunities Hillel at Pitt has provided me and other Jewish students throughout my time at Pitt. Through virtual programming, Hillel was able to offer Shabbat, learning, and interactive experiences. As we’ve moved towards in-person programming, it has been amazing to see virtual friendships come to life. Hillel at Pitt has allowed me to engage with my peers through the cultural and religious aspects of Judaism, and I’m so thankful for the effort Hillel continuously puts into providing a space for inclusion, pluralism, and justice.

CMU-Hillel is amazing because of the support it provides students, as a community of peers and friends. Students are able to enjoy being able to celebrate Shabbat and Jewish holidays with the Hillel community, and have the ability to engage in different aspects of their Judaism, whether it is through culture, community, religion, music, or food!

Finalists

Isa Antonetti
Carnegie Mellon University
Isabela (Isa) Antonetti is excited to be a finalist for Campus Superstar. She is a Latina from the Greater Rochester NY area and is a first-year student at Carnegie Mellon University pursuing her BFA in Musical Theatre. Some of her favorite credits include female ensemble in the Off-Broadway production of EVITA at the New York City Center, and her alternating role as Velma and Roxie in Chicago, the High School Edition. Outside of singing, Isa loves to paint and spend time with her partner. She would like to thank her family, friends and CMU family for their support and would like to especially thank Hillel JUC for this amazing opportunity.

Trey Caperton
Carnegie Mellon University
Trey Caperton (any/all pronouns) is so incredibly excited to share the stage with some of Pittsburgh’s most talented college students. Trey is a sophomore Musical Theatre major at Carnegie Mellon University who calls Albuquerque, New Mexico home. Raised in a household filled with the sounds of Metallica, Linkin Park, Don Williams, Willie Nelson, and Bon Jovi, Trey has spent their entire life singing an eclectic variety of music and is eager to share one of the songs from their childhood tonight. Trey is incredibly thankful for the love and support of you, the audience, Daniela Deuel, Jan Browning, Mickey Prokopiak, all of their loving mentors at Carnegie Mellon, their friends, their family back home, and Hillel JUC for the opportunity to perform for you tonight. @treyperton on Instagram.
Christian Engelhardt
Carnegie Mellon University

Christian Engelhardt is a sophomore Musical Theatre major at Carnegie Mellon University, and is thrilled to be a finalist in Campus Superstar. Originally from Illinois, Christian attended the Chicago Academy for the Arts for high school, where he was seen as Frederic in The Pirates of Penzance, Robbie Fay in A Man of No Importance, and Oberon in A Midsummer Night’s Dream, among other shows. He would like to thank everyone involved with Campus Superstar and Hillel JUC for such a fantastic opportunity. Additionally, he would like to give a special thank you to his family, friends, and teachers, who have all greatly contributed to his continuing journey as an artist. He is honored to be sharing the stage with such incredible individuals, and hopes you enjoy each and every performance!

Kyra Klonoski
Carnegie Mellon University

Kyra Klonoski, a sophomore at Carnegie Mellon University School of Drama, is so excited to be joining fellow artists in Campus Superstar! After the past two years she is so excited to be performing again and hopes that you enjoy the show!
Elizabeth Leclerc
Carnegie Mellon University

Liz Leclerc is a current freshman at Carnegie Mellon University pursuing a BFA in Acting/Music Theatre. Originally from New Jersey, she has performed at the Paper Mill Playhouse and the Mayo Performing Arts Center for several years. Favorite credits include Cassie in A Chorus Line, Janet van de Graaf in The Drowsy Chaperone, and Elaine Harper in Arsenic and Old Lace. Most recently, she was awarded the Young Musician’s Scholarship by the Music in the Somerset Hills and was invited to perform as a vocal soloist along with a Broadway orchestra at their Essex Outdoor Summer Concert event. Liz is incredibly grateful to Hillel JUC for this opportunity. Tonight she is singing for her loving family and friends who are supporting her.

Alex Sheffield
Carnegie Mellon University

Alex Sheffield is so excited and honored to be a finalist in this year’s Campus Superstar and perform with such talented people! Originally from the UK, she is a Musical Theatre Sophomore at Carnegie Mellon University. She is currently the Choreographer for RENT, and recent theatre credits include A funny Thing that Happened on the Way to the Forum, Les Miserables, and The Secret Garden. Although most of her life is spent singing, dancing, and acting, she enjoys drawing, choreographing, and adding to her vintage clothing obsession. She would like to thank Hillel JUC, Claudia Benack, her roommates and friends for their loving support, God, and her family, for never letting her give up on singing, even when she sounded terrible.
Isabelle Myers is a junior Anthropology major at the University of Pittsburgh. When she's not singing, attending class, in the lab, or working at her favorite doggy daycare, Isabelle enjoys making art and catching up on various TV shows in her (minimal) spare time. She is currently a member of the Pitt a cappella group, The Songburghs. Isabelle sends her love and thanks to her parents back at home in York, PA, as well as her talented cellist sister and other wonderful family members, friends, and mentors across the country.

Gabriela Garza is originally from the Rio Grande Valley in South Texas. She is honored to have the opportunity to be a finalist for Campus Superstar. Garza is a sophomore musical theatre major at Point Park University. She most recently performed in Curtains at PPU. Her work in high school productions sparked the love she has for theatre. She continued working on her craft and won a regional Palm Award the following year for the “Best Leading Actress in a Musical,” playing the role of Donna in Mamma Mia! She would like to thank her family for always supporting her in all endeavors. Gabriela is so glad to have this opportunity and hopes you enjoy tonight's performances.
Liana Monaco
Point Park University

Liana Nicole Monaco is excited to be a finalist in Campus Superstar! She is a senior musical theatre major and dance minor at Point Park University. Recent Pittsburgh credits include Curtains at the Pittsburgh Playhouse, and Bright Star with Front Porch Theatricals. Many thanks to her family and friends for the never-ending support, and to the CSS team for this amazing opportunity. Enjoy the show!

Michaela Isenberg
Seton Hill University

Michaela Isenberg, a graduating senior at Seton Hill University, is blessed to be joining so many talented artists in Campus Superstar this year. With her BFA in musical theatre, she plans to move to New York City or Los Angeles to pursue her career in acting. Some of her favorite roles include Velma Kelly in Chicago, Gynecia in Head Over Heels, and Elle Woods in Legally Blonde. She would like to thank her extremely supportive family, friends and professors– and most importantly, Hillel JUC for this incredible opportunity.
Zana Daghles is a junior at Point Park University pursuing a major in Community Psychology and a minor in Social Justice Studies. Outside of school, she loves musical theater, baking, and collecting Squishmallows. She is very excited to be a part of this program and is grateful for the opportunity to meet so many talented artists. Endless thanks to her parents for their love and support!

Alondra Trinidad-Colon has been performing since she was 5 years old. She got her start singing in her local church choir and performing in school productions. She found a passion for it and hasn't stopped since. She's currently a sophomore at Point Park University where she is majoring in Musical Theatre. Although a musical theatre kid at heart she also enjoys singing jazz and r&b in her spare time. She also hopes to one-day release some music of her own. She thanks her grandmother Nereida for passing down her love of singing. As well as a big thanks to her parents and friends for their constant love and support.
Jill Machen has returned to direct and produce her 14th Campus Superstar after launching the first Hillel production back in 2006. Ms. Machen is a director and choreographer and has received Gene Kelly awards and nominations locally for her work on Pippin, The Hot Mikado, and Urinetown. Jill writes and directs original material as well. Her inventive revue “No Reservations” received critical acclaim and recognition in the Post-Gazette. Jill spends time participating in a series of Broadway workshops each summer, attending master classes with current Broadway casts and production teams. It has been especially exciting over the years to watch the progress of the many former campus superstar contestants working and performing in NYC, on tour, and on Broadway! In addition to directing, Jill is a private audition coach for actors and students looking toward careers in acting and musical theatre. Though she has many other credits of which she is proud, Jill’s favorite and greatest productions (which she co-directs with husband Michael) are the smash hits, “IT’S A GIRL,” starring Lindsay, and the sequel, “IT’S A GIRL 2” starring Jennifer. Look for a new work in that series due out in 2020 entitled “They Both Said, I Do”! Jill hopes for such great success in all future productions.
Sunday spent her early years in Minneapolis, Minnesota and Southside Chicago, appearing in countless theatrical performances and vocal recitals, singing in her mother’s church, then soon moving onto film opportunities. High school took her to Washington State where, inspired by icons like Tina Turner, Madonna, Prince, she focused on developing her voice and songwriting career.

After being accepted to Carnegie Mellon University, she made her mark Freshman year by winning the esteemed “Campus Superstar” competition which quickly led to collaborations with other musicians and drama students, fine tuning her business skills to create her own original music and accompanying videos. In school, Sunday explored delving into characters of substance including her most recent role of Marya D while outside of school she performed concerts alongside an incredible array of drag queens and kings in Pittsburgh in the cabaret series “Another Party With Amanda Lepore,” “After Werk,” “Do it for Betty White Brunch,” and more.

The pandemic afforded Sunday an opportunity to live abroad with her family in Cairo, Egypt and volunteer at an organization named STARS: for refugees by refugees. It was during this time that she regularly performed originals at the “Cairo Jazz Club” with fellow producers and musicians. She was also able to connect and work with a fierce team of Cinematographers and Directors from Yemen to create the music video for her original song, “Waves”.

Through activism and empathy, Sunday writes music and creates her art in a collaborative process, striving to reveal that regardless of the experiences we may go through, human beings are deeply resilient and unique.

Sunday has her second EP coming out - stop by her website https://sundaymanistosaari.com
