ABOUT HILLEL JUC

The Edward and Rose Berman Hillel Jewish University Center (Hillel JUC) is the center of Jewish life for Jewish college students and their friends from Carnegie Mellon University, the University of Pittsburgh, Duquesne University, Chatham University and other area colleges and universities, serving an estimated 2,200 undergraduate students.

Through events, leadership development, and education, Hillel JUC strives to enhance students' college experience socially, intellectually, and spiritually. Based on the premise that college life involves much more than attending classes, Hillel JUC provides the environment and tools that help students shape their future as Jewish young adults. In an inclusive, welcoming environment, Hillel JUC creates opportunities for students to deepen their connection to Jewish identity and the Pittsburgh community. By engaging and empowering students to create their own center for Jewish life on campus, Hillel JUC serves as a training ground for future Jewish leaders and committed community members.

Hillel JUC is a 501c3, therefore your charitable commitment will be tax deductible. Proceeds go to student opportunities both at Hillel JUC and on campus.
